

Physical Development

Gross Motor - This half-term children will know how to:
Negotiate obstacles and space safely.

Demonstrate strength, balance and coordination.

Move energetically.

Fine Motor - This half-term children will know how to:

Hold a pencil effectively in preparation for fluent writing using the tripod grip in most cases.

Use a range of small tools, including scissors, paintbrushes and cutlery.

Begin to show accuracy and care when drawing.

Communication and Language:

This half term children will know how to:

Listening, Attention and Understanding:

Be a good, sustained listener and respond with relevant comments, questions and actions

Speaking:

Explain reasons for events and express ideas and feelings using full sentences.

Hold conversation in back and forth exchanges with others

Personal, Social and Emotional:

Building Relationships, Managing Self and Self-Regulation

This half term children will know how to:

Cooperate with others by showing sensitivity to their own and others' needs.

Be confident to try new activities and manage their own basic hygiene and personal needs.

Give focussed attention to what the teacher says

Understanding the world:

The Natural World; Past and Present; People, Culture and Communities

This half term children will know how to:

Understand important changes and processes around them and know similarities and differences between environments
Know similarities and differences between the past and present

Describe the immediate environment and explain similarities and differences between life in this country and others.

Reception F2 Curriculum Map Pentecost term 1 2023

Travel and Transport

Religious Education:

This half term children will know and understand how to show an attitude of service by the way we live our lives, the way we treat others, and by our words and actions.

Children will also learn about:
Vaisakhi – A sikh celebration of the New Year and the creation of the Khalsa

Eid-al-Fitr – A celebration in Islam of the end of the month of fasting (Ramadan)

Mathematics

Number - This half term children will know:

How to subitise (recognise without counting) quantities up to 5.

Know number bonds up to 5 by automatic recall

Numbers to 10 and have a deep understanding of each number.

Numerical Patterns - This half term children will know:

How to verbally count beyond 20

Patterns within numbers up to 10 including evens and odds and double facts.

Shape, Space and Measure - This half term children will know:

How to recognise shapes within shapes.

Select, rotate and manipulate shapes.

How to compare length, weight and capacity.

Literacy:

Comprehension and Reading:

This half term children will know:

How to use and understand recently introduced vocabulary.

Read aloud simple sentences and books consistent with Phonic knowledge including common exception words.

Anticipate key events in stories.

Writing:

This half term children will know:

How to write recognisable letters.

How to spell words by identifying sounds and representing them with a letter or letters.

How to write simple phrases and sentences.

Expressive arts and Design:

Being Imaginative and Expressive - This half term children will know how to:

Perform songs, rhymes and poems with movement in time to music.

Creating with Materials - This half term children will know:

Safely use and explore a variety of materials tools and

Characteristics of Effective Learning:

Active Learning

This half term children will know how to begin to correct their mistakes themselves e.g. trying another piece when making a jigsaw instead of using increased force to push a piece in.